

dodo l'originale 0,75l

2017 the Italian barman Edoardo Ferraris, alias dodo, was mixing a sirup with mandarin, ginger, basil and chili. He used the sirup principally to make a cocktail with sparkling wine and soda. His guests where very enthusiastic about the drink and he called it dodo. The ZADI company studied a recipe for the sirup and than launched in 2017 the ZADI 2.0 sirup. The sirup ZADI 2.0 is now used from many bars in northern Italy to mix the dodo cocktails. In 2018 than ZADI launched the ready to pour mix in a bottle from the most famous dodo cocktail, wich is made with ZADI 2.0, sparkling wine and soda. Like usual in ZADI's products no aromas , colourants or other artificial components are tolerated. So it's a natural product!!
